The Brazos, that is!

What a fun Get'away that Elaine Hale, Kathy Jones, Paula Trammell and Belinda Antonowicz threw together in such a short time at the end of July.

It was held at the Oak Creek RV Park at Weatherford and what I would call a five star RV Park. WOW! Not only were the parking pads concrete, so were all the streets. I have never seen so much concrete at an RV Park among the grass and trees. It was truly a beautiful place.

We have had some cute, charming, creative and beautiful name tags in the past but none so clever as at this campout. Elaine made little inner tubes and put a very small foam cut out doll in the center (sitting down in the hole of the tube) and painted bathing suits on some and glued cut out bathing suits on others and put our names on the tubes. Just too cute!

Each morning the hostesses were up bright and early preparing breakfast for those who wanted to eat at the "awesome" clubhouse. Elaine said she loves to cook and she proved that to be true at this campout. That girl knows how to fry bacon!

We live, laugh, and love to get'away!

On Thursday, after a free day of “just piddling,” the hostesses planned a potluck appetizer & snack dinner for that night. We had a very relaxing evening just sitting around talking and eating. There were several new members whom attended and it was nice getting acquainted with them.

Friday was the first day for tubing the Brazos and for others it was a day for shopping. We saw several “over cooked bodies” later in the day as they were coming in from the river! LOL! For our evening meal we drove over to Millsap and ate at the Brazos River Catfish Café. After returning to the campground our hostesses had cakes, cobbler, ice cream and games to play, waiting for us. What a treat that was!

Saturday was pretty much the same but maybe a little more fun with everyone (that wanted to) dressed in Hillbilly attire. I had to leave on Saturday morning but when I went down for breakfast all four hostesses were already in costume and they looked so cute.

Thank you girls, so much, for hosting this really fun summer camp out. You did an awesome job and you made everyone feel so welcome.

It's almost time for another Hillbilly weekend. Debbie Johnson has lots of fun and crazy things planned for us in September so get those decorated stick horses ready to mount and ride to Arkansas.

Happy camping with love,

Dixie
