up our name tags which was a large colorful paper parrot. Gals & girls spent the day decorating their RV's and the evening was spent visiting and eating. The hostesses served us Bar-B-Q Pulled Pork on buns with all the trimmings. We had iced tea and lemonade to drink, and for dessert, cake and ice cream and last but not least, drawing for door prizes, and there were many.

Arrrr! The Pirates Have Come Ashore!

There just aren't enough words to describe how arrrrsome our first annual Gals & Girls Get'away turned out to be. Another word (other than arrrrsome) does come to mind though, and that word would have to be WOW! What a fun time Captain Debbie, First Mate Krissy and First Lass June planned for those attending the June (Pirate theme) campout, which was held at New Braunfels at the Hill Country RV & Cottage Resort. Another WOW!

No doubt about it, one could certainly tell we were among pirates as we entered the "Pirates Den" (activity center) on Thursday. We all received a sand bucket with cute "pirate" party favors inside. We also picked Friday morning started with a treasure hunt. GG's and their Jr's lined up at the Pirate Den where the adventure to Schlitterbahn Water Park began with a treasure map and a pirate flag for their vehicles. The map directed the pirates thru Historic Landa Park and the old downtown square. The pirates had to navigate their way to three locations where they received a treasure at each one. This included a pirate beach ball, a bottle of water, a bag of gold fish and a pirate fan. I don't think anyone got lost. Good job, Pirates! The Water Park added more arrrrsomeness to the Get'away . BIG WOW! for sure.

We live, laugh, and love to get'away!

Everyone got back to camp in time to enjoy an evening of dancing to the 80's music the DJ was spinning. He certainly knew the right songs to play to keep the Jr's on the dance floor. Those little girls had so much fun dancing, as did the big girls, too. Even a little one in diapers never missed a beat. The reason I knew she was in diapers is because I heard someone tell her she needed to get her diaper changed. She was a dancing diva!!!

Friday and Saturday night, many, many snacks were served and the hostesses had given them all pirate names. It was all displayed so pretty and just to name a few...Black grapes were "Cannon Balls", oblong sugar wafers were called "Walk the Plank", wieners were sliced a couple of times at one end pretty far up and this made them look like they had wobbly legs. They were so cute and called "Silly Squid" because they actually looked like squid, small squares of yellow cheese were called "Pirates Gold". There were lots more but too many to mention.

There was a large TREASURE chest (cedar chest) that held the door prizes on Thursday & Friday night but on Saturday night it was filled with all kinds of goodies for the Jr's to help themselves to. This, along with photo props and so many cute decorations, just added to the pirate atmosphere. There was even a cave created by Debbie and inside was a plastic swimming pool filled with sand for those who wanted to dig for small treasures.

7:00 PM Saturday night rolled around and the costume party began! The "PIRATES" had arrived. All costumes were truly arrrrsome and rated a DOUBLE WOW!

The Jr's were presented a certificate making them an official Jr GG. They were also given membership numbers. You could tell the Jr's, along with their moms, grandmothers, aunts and friends, were bursting with pride. IF YOU ARE UNDER 21 YRS. OF AGE AND ATTENDED THE "GALS & GIRLS" CAMPOUT AND DID NOT TURN IN YOUR APPLICATION TO BE A JR GG, PLEASE CONTACT KRISSY ROMERO AT klcromero@yahoo.com AND SHE WILL SIGN YOU UP AS A JR GG.

THANK YOU, Debbie Camp, Krissy Romero and June Romero for making this such a special Get'away. You have created something that I'm quite sure will last for many years to come.

Happy camping and enjoy your summer.
