

What beautiful weather we had during the “Trailer Trash” Holiday Campout at Bullard, TX, hosted by April Coker, November 6-9. It was like summertime!

I don't know that there is such a thing as trailer trash but I do know that campout was sooooo much fun and the gals definitely made it a “trashy” weekend! LOL April did a FANTASTIC job as hostess. Thank you, April.

On Thursday afternoon we picked up our welcome bags and our cute “trailer trash” name tags before getting ready for a finger food get together early that evening.

After dinner, everyone at each table took part in making one tree ornament for the GG Christmas tree. In the center of the table was a brown paper bag with all kinds of embellishments in it and one empty toilet paper roll. The cardboard roll was to be decorated into anything you wanted to make it into. Some tables made a reindeer, one made a wind chime, some made a doll and some made “whatever you wanted to call it”. They were all very creative but there was a winner. Mendy Archer's table made a “horny reindeer”. You didn't have to wonder what he was “up” to! TRASSSSSHY!!!

Friday was a free day and many went shopping, some went sight seeing and some just hung out at the campground or their motel until time for another fun night.

Friday night was “costume” night. Oh my goodness, what a sight to behold that was. I have never seen such a mess! LOL. A good mess, I might add. The costumes were awesome! Santa was there and many had their photo taken with him.

After dinner we all went outside under the huge covered lighted drive way that goes into the campground. There, we paraded in our “trashy” costumes for three unknown judges to pick 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners of the costume contest. Penny Forell received first place, Dixie Taylor, second and Linda Williams, third. It was soooooo much “trashy” fun.

You call me Trailer Trash

Like it's a bad thing!

Saturday was another free day and come Saturday night we sat down to a delicious catered dinner. After dinner, tables were taken down to make room for our last dance of the year. It was a GREAT weekend and thank you also, April, for all the door prizes. During the weekend there was a “Best Trailer” contest. The winners were Kaye Lander and Gene’e Hebear!

2016 was another WONDERFUL year of the GG’s. I want to thank all the hostesses for a year of good clean fun. We will be starting our 6th year in January. I can hardly wait to see what all is planned for 2017 campouts. I will look forward to seeing everyone again next year.

I want to wish everyone a very Merry CHRISTmas and a very Blessed New Year.

Love you much!
Dixie
